1. Scope and Purpose

In terms of Regulation 30(4)(ii) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations), the Board of Directors (the Board) of the Bank, is required to formulate and adopt a Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events / Information and upload the same on the website of the Bank. Further, SEBI vide Circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/CFD-PoD-1/P/CIR/2023/123 dated July 13, 2023, prescribes the details that need to be provided by the Bank, as a listed entity, while disclosing such material events / information.

2. Applicability

This Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events / Information (the Policy) shall be applicable and binding in respect of all material events/ information of the Bank and events/information with respect to its subsidiary companies which are material for the Bank.

3. Key principles in determining materiality

The Listing Regulations have not only provided the manner in which details of such material events / information relating to the affairs of a listed entity is required to be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges, but also its nature and the time limit within which it must be disclosed, to enable the investors and the general public to take an informed decision, with regards to the affairs of the Bank and that of its subsidiary companies, detailed as under:

- i. Events listed in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, as set out in Annexure 'A' to this Policy, shall be disclosed by the Bank to the Stock Exchanges, without applying any criteria of materiality.
- ii. Events listed in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, as set out in Annexure 'B' to this Policy shall be disclosed by the Bank to the Stock Exchanges, subject to application of the following criteria so as to determine, whether such event or information is material or not:
 - a) Where the omission to disclose an event or information, is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of the event or information already available publicly; or
 - b) Where the omission to disclose an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction[#] if such omission comes to light at a later date; or
 - c) Where the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 1. two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements* of the Bank.
 2. two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements* of the Bank, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative.
 3. five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements* of the Bank.

#Significant market reaction may be assessed against scrip price, as per the parameters specified by the stock exchanges.

*The words "audited consolidated financial statements" means annual audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank.

Clarification: In computing the "expected impact in terms of value" of an event/information, the Bank should, where applicable, consider the expected impact in the four ensuing quarters (including the quarter in which the event occurs if the event occurs in the first 60 days of the quarter). Further, while undertaking the assessment of the "value" and "expected impact in terms of value", the Bank shall place reliance on the principles for measurement set out under the applicable accounting standards.

Further, in certain instances, all of the three parameters specified above (viz., profit / net worth / turnover) may not be relevant to an event and a particular threshold would be relevant and applicable depending on the nature of the event/information being assessed. As such, while assessing whether an event exceeds the materiality thresholds, Bank should refer to Industry Standards Note on Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations for guidance on which of the relevant and appropriate parameter ought to be considered for determination of materiality for different types of events under Para B of Part A of Schedule III of Listing Regulations.

- d) Where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b), (c) above are not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material, if in the opinion of Board of the Bank, such event or information is deemed fit to be considered as material.
- iii. In case of an event or information, which does not form part of Annexure 'A' or Annexure 'B' as above, the following criteria (in addition to the criteria as mentioned in para 3(ii) above) shall be applied to determine whether the event or information is material or not:
- (a) Event or information is likely to have a material impact on the Bank.
 - (b) Events / information relating to any major development which is likely to affect the business of the Bank and any other information which is exclusively known to the Bank, which may be required to be disclosed to enable the security holders of the Bank, to appraise their position and to avoid establishment of false market in such securities.

In the event that the Bank at any time in the future does issue non-convertible redeemable preference shares, the Bank shall make such disclosures as set out in Part B of Schedule III under the Listing Regulations.
- viii. Such other information as may be specified by SEBI, from time to time.

SEBI/HO/CFD/CFD-PoD-2/P/CIR/2024/52 dated May 21, 2024 on 'Industry Standards on verification of market rumours', the parameter for determining 'foreign jurisdictions where the Bank has material business operations', shall be similar to the criteria for determining a material subsidiary mentioned under Regulation 16(1)(c) of the Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time. None of the foreign jurisdictions wherein the Bank currently operates is covered under the above-mentioned parameter and hence, no list of foreign business/ financial news sources has been identified.
