

CUSTOMER COMPENSATION POLICY OF THE BANK

1. Objective of the Policy

- 1.1. The objective of the policy is to establish a system whereby the Bank compensates the customer for the financial loss he/she could incur due to deficiency in service on the part of the Bank or any act of omission or commission directly attributable to it.

2. Scope

- 2.1. The policy is based on the principles of transparency and fairness in the treatment of our customers.
- 2.2. It is designed to compensate the customer only for the financial loss incurred by him/her due to deficiency in the services offered by the Bank which can be measured directly and is limited to the compensation specified for the respective service as given below.
- 2.3. The date of receipt of complaint/notice by the Bank would be taken as day "zero" and the timelines mentioned would be counted from the next working day onwards.
- 2.4. The commitments under this policy are without prejudice to any right the Bank will have in defending its position before any Court of Law, Tribunal or Forum duly constituted to adjudicate banker-customer disputes.
- 2.5. The policy covers areas relating to:
- a) Erroneous debiting of account
 - b) Debits towards service charges
 - c) Payment of cheques after acknowledgement of stop payment instructions
 - d) Payment of interest to customers for delayed collection of instruments
 - e) Handling of instruments lost in transit
 - f) Funds transfers using NEFT/RTGS
 - g) Foreign Exchange Services - Collection of cheques outside India denominated in Foreign Currency
 - h) Failure to execute Direct Debits / ECS debits / Standing Instructions
 - i) Reversal of erroneous debits arising on account of fraudulent transactions
 - j) Violation of the Code by the Bank's agent
 - k) Transaction of "at par instruments" of co-operative banks by Commercial Banks
 - l) Delay in release of Securities / Documents / Title Deeds
 - m) Delay in crediting failed ATM transactions
 - n) Payment of interest for delay in issue of duplicate draft

3. Erroneous debiting of account

- 3.1. If the Bank has raised an erroneous direct debit to an account, upon being informed of the erroneous debit, the entry will be reversed after due verification.

- 3.2. In the event, the erroneous debit has resulted in a financial loss to the customer by way of reduction in the minimum balance applicable for payment of interest on savings bank deposit or payment of additional interest to the Bank in a loan account or any charges levied for balance falling below the minimum balance requirement or any charges levied for return of cheques due to shortfall in balance, the Bank will compensate the customer to the extent of direct financial loss.
- 3.3. The customer should approach the Bank within a maximum period of six months from the date of the erroneous debit.
- 3.4. In case the verification of the entry reported to be erroneous by the customer does not involve a third party, the Bank shall complete the process of verification within a maximum period of 7 working days from the date of reporting of the erroneous debit.
- 3.5. In case the verification involves a third party, the Bank shall complete the verification process within a maximum period of one month from the date of reporting of the erroneous transaction by the customer.
- 3.6. The Bank reserves its right to debit the customer's account for reversing the amounts in case a wrong credit is posted to the account without payment of any compensation.
- 3.7. Transactions reported as erroneous by customers in respect of credit card operations, which require specific reference to a merchant establishment will be handled as per Chargeback rules laid down by VISA/MasterCard International. The Bank will provide explanation and, if necessary, documentary evidence to the customer within a maximum period of 60 days, provided the dispute/protest is raised within 60 days of transaction date and the required charges for locating the charge slip are paid.

4. Debits towards Service Charges

- 4.1. The Bank would debit the customer's account with any applicable service charge as per the schedule of charges notified by it.
- 4.2. In the event, the Bank levies any charges in violation of the arrangement; it will reverse the same when pointed out by the customer subject to verification of the agreed terms and conditions. Any consequential financial loss by way of loss of savings bank interest on account of reduction in the minimum balance applicable for payment of interest on savings bank deposit or payment of additional interest to the Bank in a loan account or any charges levied for balance falling below minimum balance requirement or any charges levied for return of cheques due to shortfall in balance, will also be compensated to the customer.
- 4.3. Where it is established that the Bank has issued an unsolicited credit card, the Bank would not only reverse the charges immediately but also pay compensation without demur to the recipient amounting to twice the value of charges reversed. Charges will include only those charges that are levied to the customer only when no transactions have been done on the card and such charges have been actually recovered from the customer.

5. Payment of Cheques after Acknowledgement of Stop Payment Instructions

5.1. In case a cheque has been paid after stop payment instruction is acknowledged by the Bank, the Bank shall reverse the transaction and give value-dated credit to protect the interest of the customer. Such debits will be reversed within 2 working days of the customer intimating the transaction to the Bank. In such cases, the Bank shall compensate the customer to the extent of direct financial loss, if any, by way of loss of savings account interest on account of reduction in the daily closing balance applicable for payment of interest on savings bank deposit or payment of additional interest to in a loan account or any charges levied for reason of balance falling below minimum balance requirement or any charges levied for return of cheques due to shortfall in balance.

6. Collection of Instruments within India

6.1. In case of outstation cheques and other instruments sent for collection to centres within the country, the following time lines shall be adhered to for realization by our branches:

Sr.	Cheque Type	Time Norms	Remarks
1.	Local Cheque	On settlement of funds.	Local cheques are payable within the jurisdiction of the clearing house and will be presented through the clearing system prevailing at the center. Credit arising out of local cheques shall be given to the customers' accounts immediately after closure of the relative return clearing and withdrawal shall be allowed on the same day or maximum within an hour of commencement of business on the next working day, subject to usual safeguards. The above norm is also subject to the extension of return clearing timings by the Clearing House under exceptional circumstances, which may lead to delay in allowing withdrawals as advised.
2.	Outstation cheques drawn on all state capitals	Seven working days	Working days shall not include Bank Holidays and days when clearing house is not operational. Working days will be considered at both the ends/centers.

3.	Outstation cheques drawn on a major city.	Ten working days	- do -
4.	Outstation cheques drawn on all other locations.	Fourteen working days	Banks will have to depend on the correspondent / drawee banks for this purpose.
5a.	Cheques sent for collection in CTS clearing	T+0 depending on the time and location (branch/ATM) of deposit of the instrument by the customer. The cut off time for deposit may vary from branch to branch, city to city and grid to grid. For the instruments outside the grid the cheques will be presented in speed clearing and the grid timelines will apply. However, for cheques drawn on Banks whose presence is limited to any particular geography, such instruments have to be presented as outstation instruments and the timelines for the realization will be as mentioned in Point No. 2 of the table.	The realization of the credit may vary based on the cut off time for the returns applicable to the respective grid.
5b.	Cheques sent for CTS clearing – Uniform holidays calendar for the grid	As per the holiday declared in the Grid	Uniform holidays calendar is observed across the three grids, where the grid hub centers viz., Chennai/Delhi /Mumbai will be working on most of the holidays, even while other locations in the grid are observing holidays, As per the Uniform holidays calendar, the grid hub centers will be closed on notified days and on such occasions the credit to the customer is afforded on the next working day of the Grid hub. The Uniform Holidays calendar for the grid would be available at a nearest branch.

6.	Cheque drawn on foreign countries.	Best effort basis	Bank would give credit to the party on credit of proceeds to the Bank's Nostro Account with the correspondent bank after taking into account cooling periods as applicable to the countries concerned.

6.2. Local Cheques: Compensation at savings bank interest rate shall be paid for the corresponding period of delay.

Outstation Cheques: As part of the Policy, the Bank will pay interest to its customer on the amount of collection instruments in case there is delay in giving credit beyond the time period specified in banks Cheque Collection Policy. Such interest shall be paid without any demand from customers in all types of accounts. There shall be no distinction between instruments drawn on the bank's own branches or on other banks for the purpose of payment of interest on delayed collection.

Interest for delayed collection shall be paid at the following rates:

- For a period of delay up to 14 days, savings bank rate of interest and for delay beyond 14 days, applicable term deposit rate of interest will be paid.
- In case of extraordinary delay, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the corresponding Term Deposit rate.
- In the event the proceeds of cheque under collection were to be credited to an overdraft/loan account of the customer, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the loan account. For extraordinary delays, interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the rate applicable to the loan account.

6.3. Cash Management Services: For customers availing Cash Management Services (CMS), collection of instruments is carried out as per the terms of the bilateral agreement between the bank and customers. Penalties, if any, will be payable as per the terms of the bilateral agreement.

7. Handling of Instruments Lost-in-Transit

7.1. In the event a cheque or an instrument accepted for collection is lost in transit or in the clearing process or at the paying bank's branch, the Bank shall immediately, on coming to know of the loss, bring the same to the notice of the account holder so that the account holder can inform the drawer to record stop payment and also take care that cheques, if any, issued by him/her are not dishonoured due to non-credit of the amount of the lost cheques/instruments.

7.2. If the cheque/instrument has been lost at the paying bank's branch, the collecting branch will have a right to recover the amount, including charges / interest expenses, reimbursed to the customer for the loss of the cheque/instrument from the paying banker.

7.3. The Bank would provide all assistance to the customer to obtain a duplicate instrument from the drawer of the cheque. This would be applicable only to instruments drawn in INR payable within India.

7.4. The Bank will compensate the account holder in respect of instruments lost in transit as follows and will recover it from the paying bank.

- i. In case intimation regarding loss of instrument is conveyed to the customer after the time limit stipulated for collection (7/10/14 days, as the case may be), interest will be paid for the period exceeding the stipulated collection period at the applicable savings bank rate.
- ii. In addition, the Bank will pay interest on the amount of the cheque for a period of 15 days at savings bank rate to provide for likely further delay in obtaining duplicate cheque/instrument and collection thereof.
- iii. The Bank will also compensate the customer for any reasonable charges he/she incurs in getting the duplicate cheque/instrument upon production of receipt, in the event the instrument is to be obtained from a bank/institution who would charge a fee for issue of duplicate instrument.

The mode of collection for foreign currency cheques / instruments would depend on the currency, drawee location and the amount of the instrument and would be informed to the customer.

At present, the Bank avails 'Final Credit Service' from our Correspondent Bank - Wells Fargo Bank under which final credit is received (without recourse). Credit for the foreign currency cheque is received in the Nostro Account as per the period specified below and there is no further cooling period in the process.

- For cheques drawn on banks in New York - 6 working days from receipt of cheque by Wells Fargo Bank at their counters in USA.
- For cheques drawn on banks outside New York - 16 working days from receipt of cheque by Wells Fargo Bank at their counters in USA.

For foreign currency cheques lost prior to receipt by the correspondent, the Bank will bear the stop payment charges on customer producing the relevant document. Compensation for foreign currency cheques would be applicable only if the Bank or its correspondent bank loses the cheque. The compensation in such case would be as follows: -

- In case intimation regarding loss of instrument is conveyed to the customer beyond the time stipulated for collection, interest will be paid for the period exceeding the stipulated collection period at the applicable savings bank rate.
- The Bank will also compensate the customer for any reasonable charges he /she incurs in getting duplicate cheque / instrument upon production of receipt, in the event the instrument is to be obtained from a bank / institution that would charge a fee for issue of duplicate instrument.

- The Bank would also compensate for any possible loss due to adverse movement of foreign exchange rate in case of foreign currency cheques.
- The compensation on account of delay in collection of instruments in foreign currency would be paid in Indian Rupee.

8. Funds transfer using NEFT/RTGS

8.1. In case of delay in crediting the beneficiary customer's account or in returning the uncredited amount to the remitter in case of NEFT, the Bank would compensate the customer. Under the extant guidelines, the Bank would pay penal interest at the current RBI LAF Repo Rate plus two percent for the period of delay / till the date of refund as the case may be to the affected customers suo moto, without waiting for claim from customers.

9. Foreign Exchange Services – Collection of cheques outside India denominated in Foreign Currency

- 9.1. It is the Bank's experience that the time norms for collection of instruments drawn on banks in foreign countries differ from country to country and even within a country, from place to place. The time norms for return of instruments cleared provisionally also vary from country to country. Therefore, no compensation shall be paid for any delay in collection of cheques designated in foreign currencies and sent to foreign countries.
- 9.2. The Bank will compensate the customer only for undue delay in affording credit once proceeds are credited to the Nostro Account of the Bank with its correspondent with full particulars. The compensation in such cases will be restricted to the extent of eligible savings bank interest rate which shall be calculated for the period after taking into account the normal cooling period stipulated (Cooling period is maximum 16 international working days from the value date of credit in our Nostro Account with the Correspondent Bank).
- 9.3. The foreign exchange rate on the date of credit in our Nostro Account shall be the basis for calculation of interest irrespective of the rate prevailing on the date of claim/calculation/settlement.
- 9.4. For cheques / instruments sent on collection basis, the Bank will value date the collection once the proceeds have been credited to the Nostro Account of the Bank with its correspondent bank.
- 9.5. In case of delay beyond the date when the amount is due for credit, compensation is payable for any adverse movement of exchange rate.
- 9.6. The compensation on account of delay in collection of instruments in foreign currency would be paid in Indian Rupee, as detailed below:

- i. At Savings Bank rate, if the period of delay is beyond prescribed collection period, i.e. after 10 days from the cooling period (as mentioned in Para 6.1 above) and upto 45 days, where proceeds of the instruments are to be credited to deposit accounts.
- ii. In case of abnormal delay, i.e. delays exceeding 45 days, interest will be paid at term deposit rate applicable for the period and for delays beyond 90 days, 2% above the applicable term deposit rate.
- iii. In the event of the proceeds of cheque under collection being required to be credited to an overdraft / loan account of the customer, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the loan account, if the delay is less than 45 days. For abnormal delays, i.e. beyond 45 days, interest will be paid at the rate of 2 % above the applicable interest rate to the loan account. Such interest shall be payable with a minimum of Rs. 25/-.

10. Failure to execute Direct Debits / ECS Debits/ Standing Instructions

- 10.1. The Bank undertakes to carry out Direct Debits / ECS debits / standing instructions of customers in time subject to the following: -
