1. Preamble/ Introduction

- a) The timely and effective handling of consumer complaints / concerns is fundamental to the Axis Bank's principles of responsible finance and its commitment to treat the customer fairly. As part of Axis Bank's Vision and Values statement, Customer Centricity is stated foremost of the five core values of the bank. Axis Bank believes that a customer experience in dealings with the Bank is critical to ensuring his enduring relationship with the Bank. Axis Bank, and its subsidiaries are committed to promptly responding and addressing customer complaints / concerns and driving appropriate adjustments to its business practices / processes to improve quality of customer service and strengthen its risk management.
- b) Axis Bank's Grievance Redressal Policy has been framed in accordance with prescriptions and directions as stated in various regulatory guidelines/ frameworks relevant to Customer Service. The extant policy outlines the framework for handling and redressal of customer grievances.

2. Important definitions:

Definition of Query, Request and Complaint

A) Query

Definition:

A Query is a customer interaction where the customer seeks general information or clarification regarding banking products, services, interest rates, account details, or transaction status. These are informational in nature and do not require any follow-up action from the Bank.

Illustrative Examples:

- Balance enquiry on customer's account.
- Customer enquiring about certain features on Mobile Banking.
- Customer seeking additional information on a transaction in the credit card statement.
- Information on interest rates for savings or loans
- Details regarding product features and benefits
- Explanation of charges or fees applied to the account
- Status update on submitted service requests
- Queries on digital product features
- Queries related to locker facility

B) Request

Definition:

A Request is a customer interaction where the customer asks for a specific service or deliverable. These interactions have a defined turnaround time (TAT) and require action from the Bank.

Illustrative Examples:

- Customer applies for a change in the EMI date on his loan account.
- Customer applies for an upgraded variant of his credit card.
- Request for a new debit/credit card or PIN.
- Request for a duplicate account statement or fee reversal.
- Request for account statement or certificate of interest
- Change of contact details or address
- Request for cheque book or debit card issuance
- Application for loan or credit card
- Request for closure or transfer of account
- Request for personalized banking services

C) Complaint

Definition:

“Complaint” means a representation by a customer (including walk-in customers) in writing or through other modes alleging deficiency in service on the part of the bank or a delay (perceived or otherwise) in the delivery of the bank’s products or services with or without seeking relief thereon. This will include allegations of mis-sell/misinformation.

Deficiency in Service:

Deficiency in service” means a shortcoming or an inadequacy in any service, which the regulated entity is required to provide statutorily or otherwise, which may or may not result in financial loss or damage to the customer.

Illustrative Examples:

- Account frozen due to multiple CIF IDs created by the bank
- Payment made online by customer, however not yet credited to beneficiary.
- UPI transaction where the Axis account is debited but the beneficiary is not credited.
- CIF merger scenario where customer is unable to access account due to multiple CIFs in the bank records leading to account suspension.
- Cash not dispensed from ATM, however account debited.
- Delay in processing service requests
- Incorrect charges or fees applied
- Poor customer service experience
- Non-receipt of promised benefits or offers
- Cash deposit or withdrawal issues
- Delay in account opening or documentation

- Issues with cheque clearance
- Login issues with mobile or internet banking
- Transaction failures or delays
- Password reset and authentication problems
- Inaccurate information provided by agents
- D) Award

Definition:

“Award means directions issued to the Bank for specific performance of its obligations within the specified timelines.”

3. Objective

The Objective of the policy is to ensure that:

- a. All customers are always treated fairly and without bias,
- b. All complaints, requests and queries received from customers are responded with courtesy as per defined timelines,
- c. Customers are made completely aware of their rights so that they can opt for alternative remedies if they are not fully satisfied with our response or resolution to their complaint.

8. Governance Structure - Roles and Responsibilities of Board of Directors/ Senior Management:

Grievance Review Mechanism of the Bank:

The Bank has set up the following committees & review mechanism to monitor and review quality of customer service and grievance redressal mechanism of the Bank.

Customer Service Committee of the Board: This committee of the Board is responsible to oversee & guide implementation of service enhancement initiatives across the Bank. The Committee meets once every quarter to review customer complaints, regulatory mandates, policy decisions, review banks performance on initiatives to enhance customer experience.

Standing Committee on Customer Service: The Committee meets quarterly and is responsible for orienting, educating & creating awareness among customer, more importantly this serves as a forum to understand customer feedback about banks products & services. Matters deliberated in this meeting are further taken up for service development & product enhancement to elevate the quality of service delivered to customers. This meeting is attended by senior management of the bank and customers are invited to attend the meetings.

Branch Level Customer Service Committee: Bank also conducts monthly branch level customer meetings; this forum encourages customer to share their feedback & experience with the bank. As part of this meeting bank also conducts sessions to educate customers on topics like safe/secure banking, new initiatives bank has launched to ensure convenient banking. Feedback from these sessions is recorded and taken up for implementation.

Internal Ombudsman of the Bank: In line with the instructions from the Reserve Bank of India if the bank decides to reject or provide a partial relief, such cases will be referred to the Internal Ombudsman for further examination.

Service Quality Desk: Bank has set up an in-house dedicated quality review team to ensure that all touch points of the bank maintain highest standard of service quality at all times and adheres to the service standards defined by the bank to fulfil the customer expectations.

Customer Service Meet: Bank conducts monthly branch level customer meetings and quarterly standing committee of customer service meeting. As part of these meetings the intent is to get coverage across customer segments to ensure holistic feedback about banks product /services. Bank invites customers from across segments including Mass segment, Affluent segment, Women customers, Senior citizens and pensioners. As part of the mentioned customer composition Bank has a specific quota for pensioners to be invited on an on-going basis.

Further bank has a structured mechanism to record customer feedback, or any other observations/feedback as voiced by customers.

For branch level meetings, branches are provided with a structured instrument to record customer feedback. Further all feedback /observations voiced by customers during such meetings are tabled to Standing Committee on Customer Service and Customer service committee of board and taken up for appropriate actioning and tracked.

Customer Grievance Management Initiatives:

- Grievance Redress Day:

The First and Third Saturdays of every month is designated as Grievance Redress Day. On this day, aggrieved customers can walk into the branch without prior appointments to meet a designated senior officer and share their concerns or grievances directly. Branch Head and Branch Operations Head are the designated officers to handle grievances from customers on the Grievance Redress Day.

- Appointment of Public Relations Officers (PROs):

To enhance customer service and grievance resolution, Branch Operations Head at larger branches and those with a high volume of complaints is designated as the Public Relations Officer (PRO). These officers in these specific branches proactively engage with customers to address and resolve grievances promptly and efficiently

9. Reporting / Monitoring requirements

The overview of Gross and Net complaints is presented every quarter to CSCB which includes: Gross Complaint (Product View) and Product wise Top 5 categories. The Committee also reviews the top areas of complaints, product-wise category, complaints trends, root cause analysis, customer service initiatives, etc. and deliberates innovative measures for enhancing the quality of customer service and improving overall service levels.

10. Disclosure Requirement

With a view to strengthen customer grievance redress mechanisms at Banks, the RBI has put in place comprehensive framework of enhanced disclosures by Bank on customer complaints in its Annual Reports. The bank places the said statement of complaints in its yearly annual report to provide relevant and important information to customer and other stakeholders. Please find format of disclosure provided as Annexure 1 for your perusal.
